

Press Release: Special Deliveries for 2 CH-F employees

Date: Tuesday, July 30, 2009

Development Council & Auxiliary award scholarships

Community Hospital-Fairfax Development Council and Auxiliary announce the winners of the Fall 2009 scholarships.

The recipients were chosen based on prior academic achievements and community service projects. The students must also be currently enrolled in an accredited healthcare educational program.

Funds for the scholarships are determined by the funds available through the Auxiliary and the Development Council.

This year, the Development Council presented the following students with $500 scholarships: Carmen Herrick, Fairfax, a pharmacy student at University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Pharmacy; Lacy Maifeld, Rock Port, a nursing student at North Central Missouri College; Jayne Dunn, Clearmont, a nursing student at BryanLGH College of Health Sciences; Jessica Walter, Tarkio, a nursing student at Clarkson College and Holly Sutter, Rock Port, a nursing student at North Central Missouri College.

This year's Auxiliary scholarship recipient was Community Hospital-Fairfax employee Rebecca Heits, RN. Rebecca is a nurse practitioner student at Clarkson College.

Community Hospital-Fairfax congratulates these scholarship winners and commends them for their hard work and dedication to their education and future careers in healthcare. Scholarship information and applications are available at www.FairfaxMed.com.